- Ramadan

Ramadan begins on the evening of March 10 and concludes with the celebration of Eid on April 8 or 9 or 10th. Since it is based on the lunar calendar, there may be variance in the day students start and end Ramadan. During this time, John Marshall will be observing Ramadan with our Muslim students. Our staff will be considerate of student energy levels and plan accordingly around the following types of activities: field trips, recess, lunch times, tests, family requests, treats, etc. During snack breaks, students will be able to go to the library if they wish. Lastly, a prayer schedule will be available during Ramadan.
